

Verse 1

You get so close you can almost feel it
Dreamt existence of illusions not real yet
Breaking those walls down with every touch
If we're lost in a moment, do we give too much

Never let me see the sunrise with you
Only sunseting like our love will do
We let time chase us from the borderline
Your eyes can never stay locked just on mine

But if you looked...

Chorus

Past the moon, oh past the moon
Promise you won't get burned by the sun
Past the moon, oh past the moon
Breathing damage that cannot be undone
It's like the scars on your heart have already won
But what if...
You could look past it
Past the moon

Verse 2

Subtle objections become less discrete
With an increased speed of my heart beat
You'll hide in the reasons to settle the dust
Before you let it engulf the both of us

Never let me see the sunrise with you
Only sunseting like our love will do
Want to/You'll turn me on just to turn me away
But I'll never ask if you want to stay

Why can't you look...

Chorus

Past the moon, oh past the moon
Promise you won't get burned by the sun
Past the moon, oh past the moon
Breathing damage that cannot be undone
It's like the scars on your heart have already won
But what if...

You could look past it
Past the moon
