

I'm a runaway...on the road
I live somewhere but...it's not home
I'm a runaway...no destination
Trying to get away...from complication

As I start losing my way again
I'll keep moving place to place
Only so far that I can bend
You won't remember my face

Run, run...when I'm feeling handcuffed
Run, run...don't let the hurt catch up

I'm a runaway...so I've been told
Sink in quicksand...if I'm controlled
I'm a runaway...no foundation
I'm self-sabotaging...with no explanation

You're getting too close, don't call my bluff
Won't weigh down with all the guilt
I'm out the door before I erupt
Captive of the wall I've built

Run, run...when I'm feeling handcuffed
Run, run...don't let the hurt catch up

When freedom isn't really free
When love is lost 'cause we don't believe
Casting aside what we could become
I'm a runaway...but what am I really running from

You better... Run, run...when I'm feeling handcuffed
Run, run...don't let the hurt catch up

Run, run...when I'm feeling handcuffed
Run, run...don't let the hurt catch up
