

Verse 1

It took me a long time to get over you that there's no turning back
I know better now how you like to play and I don't want none of that
Not gonna fall for any of your lame excuses
Don't try to come to me when you always do this
You push my buttons. You push my limits.

But...

Chorus

I'm not sympathetic
You're so pathetic
Must be genetic
Cause you know you're all messed up
Hate your personality (Yes I do...)
Snap back to reality (Come on boy..)
You're a technicality (Haven't you realized...)
And I've finally had enough

Verse 2

You were throwing lie after lie at me, thinking you knew me so well
But baby there was so much more to me than you could ever tell
Don't try to prove me wrong. Your words are useless
Still jerking me around, saying we'll get through this
You push my buttons. You push my limits.

But...

Chorus

I'm not sympathetic
You're so pathetic
Must be genetic
Cause you know you're all messed up
Hate your personality (Yes I do...)
Snap back to reality (Come on boy..)
You're a technicality (Haven't you realized...)
And I've finally had enough

Bridge

I feel your hand reaching back out to me
Like it always has
It's just wishful thinking it will last
Guess you don't know what I'm all about
But you're about to figure it out.
I got caution tape... around this mistake...with you.

And...

Chorus

I'm not sympathetic

You're so pathetic

Must be genetic

Cause you know you're all messed up

Hate your personality (Yes I do...)

Snap back to reality (Come on boy..)

You're a technicality (Haven't you realized...)

And I've finally had enough

Outtro

Sympathetic, pathetic, must be genetic, call a medic, to check that headache, it's almost poetic, a little copacetic, even though it's pathetic, laugh it off cause he don't get it, I'm not sympathetic.
