

Verse 1

Everything you say so contradicting
Everything you can't do so restricting
Still I'm fixated.. on you
The past few days have been so unbearable
Can't imagine anything comparable
And still you leave me.. confused

Coda 1

Unclear on our destination
But I know I'm racing against the clock
And even though I'm facing hesitation..
In my heart, I feel something I can't really explain
If I put my heart on the line, will you break it again?

Chorus

If I go to extremes
Will you inspire me?/Will you be there for me?
Or will you leave like you've done before?
Cause if my curiosity..
Gets the best of me
Fills me with anticipation, you see
Flip over my gambling cards
Either way, I'm not allowed to be with you/Never get 21; only catch 22
But if I go to extremes
Will I finally be enough for you?

Verse 2

Going back and forth inside of my mind
Should or shouldn't I cross over the line
I've got nothing.. to lose
Can't be unattached under these conditions
Sit down for a moment and listen
Why are you asking me.. to choose?

Coda 2

Such an unstable situation
But I know I'm racing against the clock
And even though I'm facing hesitation..
In my heart, I feel something I can't really explain
If I put my heart on the line, will you break it again?

Chorus

If I go to extremes
Will you inspire me?/Will you be there for me?
Or will you leave like you've done before?
Cause if my curiosity..
Gets the best of me
Fills me with anticipation, you see
Flip over my gambling cards
Either way, I'm not allowed to be with you/Never get 21; only catch 22

But if I go to extremes
Will I finally be enough for you?
