

Verse 1

She was....
On the edge of reason
Close to completion
Almost about to give up
On the edge of a cliff
Tired of tug a war; being ignored
This life's a game she cannot win
She cant take it anymore

Chorus

Show me a world of sacrifice
Show me a world of/that cant be nice
Show me a place where I am nothing
Try to show me a world that's full of wrong
Show me a world I don't belong
Try your best, but it won't be anything like the world that I'm in

Wind up little dolly dolly

Verse 2

Now painted faces
Saved her from deletion
When she was ready to jump
No way left to cope
At the end of her rope; thought she found hope
Everything suddenly was clear
She found her puppeteer

Verse 3

So now she's...
So artificial
So superficial
But at least there are no more tears
If you can find the cord, you have control
Tied up by strings; I'll follow him
Pull hard enough; I'll give my soul

Chorus

Show me a world of sacrifice
Show me a world of/that can't be nice
Show me a place where I am nothing
Try to show me a world that's full of wrong
Show me a world I don't belong
Try your best, but it won't be anything like the world that I'm in

Bridge

He tried to make her who he wanted her to be
He found her broken and put the pieces back together
Didn't realize that her scars were forever
He told her...
Hidden behind this mask she wears
If you believe it fits you, your sadness will disappear
And you'll finally fit in here

So she'll be a.....
